Welcome to the 27th Annual Rocky Mountain Book & Paper Fair!

As part of our 2011 Special Feature, “Childhood Classics: Celebrating the Sense of Wonder,” Paul R. Bienvenue, author of The Book Collector’s Guide to L. Frank Baum, will speak on Saturday at 1pm about “The Man Behind the Curtain: How L. Frank Baum Created Oz.”

In addition to children’s books, our exhibitors offer a wide variety of books and paper. We hope that you have a wonderful time perusing and acquiring the items carefully selected by our exhibitors for you. Have a great time!

Security Statement

For the purpose of protecting the valuable materials assembled at the Fair, all purchases and bags of any kind will be checked by our security staff upon leaving the building.

You may safely check your items at the Fair Office opposite the Ticket Counter at the building entrance.

Thank You!

A very special thank you to all of the people who made this year's show an event to be remembered. Without our exhibitors, special program participants, volunteers, the Mart, RMABA executive committee and members, and others we may have failed to mention, this would not have come together for the enjoyment, camaraderie and shopping pleasure of all.

We are indebted to Dana Cain, and the Dana Cain Events staff, for their tireless efforts to organize and promote the show. Dana's efforts and skills have brought the Fair up a notch. Thank you.

For their dedication and hard work, let us also thank the Book Fair Committee: Jeff Jeremias, Jeff Jeremias Fine Arts; Myron West, Far West Maps & Books; Dan & Eileen Larson, Colorado Pioneer Books, Lois Harvey, West Side Books and Curios; and most especially, Sue Gallagher, Gallagher Books.

We thank you all for coming and hope to see you again next year, the first weekend in August.

This event is proudly sponsored by the Rocky Mountain Antiquarian Booksellers Association

The Rocky Mountain Antiquarian Booksellers Association is an organization of booksellers dedicated to stimulating book collecting, promoting ethical trade, and education of the public in the field of antiquarian books.
