More speakers to be announced.

BARBARA A. JOHNSON—Conservator of Art Objects

Barbara conserves decorative arts, sculpture, ethnographic artifacts, and historic objects for museums and private clients.

KAREN JONES—Book and Paper Conservator

Karen has been a book and paper conservator in private practice in Denver for almost 30 years. She has taught book repair and book conservation techniques to library staff throughout the region and remains committed to outreach in preservation education.

PAULETTE READING—Textile Conservation

Paulette received her Masters Degree in Art Conservation from Buffalo State College with a focus on Textile and Object Conservation in 2004. She worked for the Textile Conservation Workshop in South Salem, NY as Assistant Conservator, and currently is working in private practice in textile conservation.

CAMILLA VAN VOOREN—Painting Conservator

Camilla is a conservator of paintings at the Western Center for the Conservation of Fine Arts (WCCFA) in Denver, Colorado. Camilla has lectured and taught workshops to museum professionals and has been involved in numerous other regional outreach activities.

Featured Items Coming to the RMBPF Website!

What is a Feature Item? A Featured Item is a rare or vintage item which a RMBPF exhibitor plans on bringing to the fair.

Yes, they will be available for sale at and before the fair.

These items will be listed on the RMBPF website www.rmaba.org as exhibitors send the information to us.

Some of the items may also be listed in future book fair progress reports. There is no guarantee that featured items listed on the website will make it to the fair.

The item could be sold prior to the fair.

Check the website regularly for the Feature Item List and updates. You never know, that item you have been searching for may pop-up. The Featured Item list will not include everything that Exhibitors are bringing to the fair. Even if you don't see anything you want on the lists, come to the Rocky Mountain Book and Paper Fair anyway. You never know what might be there.

New Exhibitor Applications Still Being Taken

The Rocky Mountain Book and Paper Fair welcomes new exhibitors to the fair. New exhibitors to the RMBPF, who are not a member of a book, map or ephemera professional organization will need to complete an Application to Exhibit. A copy of the Application to Exhibit is available at www.rmaba.org. Simply complete the form and send it to the RMBPF address to be evaluated and considered for a booth at the fair.

Get Your Friends on the Book Fair Mailing List

If you have friends that are also interested in rare and vintage collectibles, recommend they get on the Rocky Mtn Book and Paper Fair mailing list. Simply go to www.rmaba.org and click on the "Receive News ..." button in the left column. Enter the required information and they will be added to the mailing list. This will automatically include them in the drawing for a FREE PASS to the fair.

FREE PASS Drawing

Go to www.rmaba.org, click on "Receive News..." button in the left column and enter the required information. This will automatically enter you in the FREE PASS drawing. If you are already on the mailing list, never fear you will not be added twice. Enter now! If you don't enter, you will not be eligible for the Free Pass drawing.

Raffles for Book Bucks

One of the fun things that happens at the Rocky Mountain Book and Paper Fair are the raffle drawings for Book Bucks. With a Book Bucks coupon you can purchase something from any of the exhibitors at the fair. Book Bucks coupons must be spent at the fair and can not be redeemed after the fair is over. Also, you must be present to collect your Book Bucks coupon, so come and stay all day.

Advertising Opportunities

Should you be advertising in the Rocky Mountain Book and Paper Fair program book? Does your business rely on the sales of collectibles and rare books, magazines, posters, postcards, ephemera, etc.? If the answer is yes, then we have your target market and at advertising rates you won't believe.

Each, of over 1000 book fair attendees, will receive one copy of the program book. Also, several e-mailed progress reports and reminders will be sent out to over 4000 avid collectors and potential customers.
