SATURDAY, August 3, 10am–5pm

Demonstrations, Panel Discussions and more.

Special Events

The Art of Collecting (Friday 6:30pm)

Chris Lane will discuss a consideration of what it means to collect, with reference to antique prints and maps. Among the questions discussed will be why collect?, What is a collection? and How does one go about building a collection?

Caring for your Collection (Saturday 11am)

Learn best practices for keeping your collection in prime condition. Join experts as they discuss conservation of: textiles, paintings, decorative and historic objects and books and paper. Each presenter will explain their specialty and share guidelines for collections care. (Speakers: Barbara Johnson, Karen Jones, Paulette Reading, and Camilla Van Vooren)

Preservation Station (Saturday 1pm)

Karen Jones will present demonstrations on basic book care and handling and an opportunity to ask questions about collection care.

Confirmed Speakers

BARBARA A. JOHNSON—Conservator of Art Objects

Barbara conserves decorative arts, sculpture, ethnographic artifacts, and historic objects for museums and private clients.

KAREN JONES—Book and Paper Conservator

Karen has been a book and paper conservator in private practice in Denver for almost 30 years. She has taught book repair and book conservation techniques to library staff throughout the region and remains committed to outreach in preservation education.

CHRISTOPHER W. LANE—

Print, Maps and Collections Expert

Mr. Lane has authored numerous articles and several books, including Ewell L. Newman award winning Panorama of Pittsburgh, as well as given hundreds of lectures around the country and internationally. Mr. Lane has worked with collectors since he became a print and map dealer in 1982 and has published a number of guides on collecting. He has also worked since 1997, along with his partner Donald H. Cresswell, as the print and map expert for PBS's program Antiques Roadshow.

PAULETTE READING—Textile Conservation

Paulette received her Masters Degree in Art Conservation from Buffalo State College with a focus on Textile and Object Conservation in 2004. She worked for the Textile Conservation Workshop in South Salem, NY as Assistant Conservator, and currently is working in private practice in textile conservation.

CAMILLA VAN VOOREN—Painting Conservator

Camilla is a conservator of paintings at the Western Center for the Conservation of Fine Arts (WCCFA) in Denver, Colorado. Camilla has lectured and taught workshops to museum professionals and has been involved in numerous other regional outreach activities.

Featured Items Coming to the RMBPF Website!

What is a Feature Item? A Featured Item is a rare or vintage item which a RMBPF exhibitor plans on bringing to the fair. Yes, they will be available for sale at and before the fair. These items will be listed on the RMBPF website www.rmaba.org as exhibitors send the information to us. Some of the items may also be listed on the book fair Facebook page. There is no guarantee that featured items listed on the website will make it to the fair. The item could be sold prior to the fair.

Check the website regularly for the Feature Item List and updates. You never know, that item you have been searching for may pop-up. The Featured Item list will not include everything that Exhibitors are bringing to the fair. Even if you don't see anything you want on the lists, come to the Rocky Mountain Book and Paper Fair anyway, you never know what might be there.

Confirmed Exhibitors

Following is a partial list of confirmed exhibitors/vendors who will be buying and selling at the 29th Annual Rocky Mountain Book and Paper Fair. Exhibitors are confirmed daily. Check the RMBPF website, www.rmaba.org, regularly for updates.

New and Returning Exhibitor Applications Still Being Taken

The Rocky Mountain Book and Paper Fair welcomes new and returning exhibitors to the fair. New exhibitors to the RMBPF, who are not a member of a book, map or ephemera professional organization will need to complete an Application to Exhibit. A copy of the Application to Exhibit is available at www.rmaba.org. Simply complete the form and send it to the RMBPF address to be evaluated and considered for a booth at the fair.

Raffles for Book Bucks

One of the fun things that happens at the Rocky Mountain Book and Paper Fair are the raffle drawings for Book Bucks. With a Book Bucks coupon you can purchase items from any of the exhibitors at the fair. Book Bucks coupons must be spent at the fair and can not be redeemed after the fair is over. Also, you must be present to collect your Book Bucks coupon, so come and stay as long as you can.

Advertising Opportunities

Should you be advertising in the Rocky Mountain Book and Paper Fair program book? Does your business rely on the sales of collectibles and rare books, magazines, posters, postcards, ephemera, etc.? If the answer is yes, then we have your target market and at advertising rates you won't believe.

Each, of over 1000 book fair attendees, will receive one copy of the program book. Also, several e-mailed progress reports and reminders will be sent out to over 4000 avid collectors and potential customers.

Advertising Rates: Ad Size—Image Area - Cost

Inside Back Cover—4.5" X 7.5" (color) - $200.00

Body Full Page—4.5" X 7.5" - $175.00

Half Page—4.5" X 3.75" - $100.00

¼ Page—2.25" X 3.75" - $60.00

E-Mail Banner Ad—1.5" X 6" (color) - $150.00

For deadlines and more details on how to make this opportunity happen for you and your business open the Ad Rate sheet available on the RMBPF website at www.rmaba.org.
